ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On August 1, 2008, a detention hearing was held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). Defendant has been indicted with fraud based on her unauthorized use of a credit card for which she received goods in excess of $1000 in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1029, and for two counts of unlawfully using the means of an identification of another person in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1028A. The following requires detention of defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is not any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

The evidence against defendant meets the probable cause standard. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted.

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on a request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 26th day of September 2008.

BRIAN L. OWSLEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
